

Account Linkage flow

ADS TEAM

Problem: we haven't touched the AL flow for a while as back in 2y the main users issue was trust however, probably now user are more familiar with AL.

Hypothesis: By removing the trust modal when they want link their accounts and sending users directly to the partner login details, it will increase the AL rate

Mystery Box for conversions

ADS TEAM

Problem: Currently the mystery box is designed as a bonus after the user completed the whole Mission that contains the specific KPIs ie. Play 1 match, link your account. We now want to see deeper in the funnel how is performing

Hypothesis: By adding the mystery box at a specific challenge (KPI) vs as bonus reward, this will increase the completion rate of the specific challenge

Skippable Video Interstitial

ADS TEAM

Problem: Interstitial ads deliver the highest CPMs due to their strong impact (high visibility and CTR).

However, they are also highly intrusive. Increasing interstitial inventory volume risks.

Hypothesis: By adding a skippable video inside the interstitial format, it will increase the CPM and not impacting the users retention (game played)

Setup

AB test experiment using the game played as KPI.

The Video interstitial (house ad) will only show if there's no display interstitials fill to avoid impacting the impression delivery

Details

Our newly developed interstitial video format is designed to capture user attention at a highly impactful moment: when players return to the platform after a period of inactivity.

This placement ensures your brand appears when the user is refocusing on FACEIT, delivering strong visibility and engagement.

Key characteristics

- Guaranteed in-view placement upon user return
- Sound-off autoplay for a non-disruptive experience
- Skippable after 3 seconds, balancing attention and user control

Why it matters for advertisers

- Reaches users at a moment of renewed attention
- High viewability and completion potential
- Ideal for brand awareness and product storytelling
- Seamlessly integrated into the player journey
